

The Order of Battle for the North-West Field Force

Batoche Column

Commander – Major-General Frederick Middleton
Chief of Staff – Lord Melgund
Commanding Artillery – Lieutenant-Colonel C.E. Montizambert
Commanding Infantry – Lieutenant-Colonel Bowen van Staubenzie
Deputy Adjutant-General – Lieutenant-Colonel C.F. Houghton
Acting Quartermaster General – Captain H. de H. Haig R.E.
Chief Transport Officer – S.L. Bedson

- * "A" Battery, Regiment of Canadian Artillery (Québec)
Lieutenant-Colonel C.E. Montizambert (4-107) **
 - * Winnipeg Field Battery (Winnipeg)
Major E.W. Jarvis (3-59)
 - * Detachment of "C" Company, Infantry School Corps (Toronto)
Major Henry Smith (2-40)
 - * 10th Royal Grenadiers (Toronto)
Lieutenant-Colonel H.J. Grasett (17-250)
 - Midland Battalion (Belleville, Lindsay, Port Hope, Kingston)
Lieutenant-Colonel A.T.H. Williams M.P. (34-342)
 - * 90th Battalion of Rifles (Winnipeg)
Lieutenant-Colonel Alfred Mackeand (29-298)
 - * Boulton's Mounted Infantry (Russell and Birtle, Manitoba)
Major C.A. Boulton (5-108)
 - * French's Scouts (Qu'Appelle, in present-day southern Saskatchewan)
Captain John French (2-33)
 - Dominion Land Surveyors' Intelligence Corps (Ottawa)
Captain J.S. Dennis (1936)
-

* At Fish Creek

 Strength in officers and other ranks